

PRESENTS

JAMES KING AND THE JAMES KING BAND

James King sings bluegrass as only a handful of others before him - Carter Stanley, Red Allen, Del McCoury - ever have. Bluegrass Unlimited has called him "the most impressive lead vocalist to emerge in traditional bluegrass this decade".

James King may be the greatest "mountain soul" singer of his generation, bringing a deep understanding of the hardcore bluegrass tradition to his hard-driving blend of bluegrass and honky-tonk country music
